一、Wie denken Sie über die Zukunft der taiwanesischen Außenpolitik? (15 分)

二、Übersetzen Sie den folgenden Text ins Chinesische! (30 分)

An diesem Montag wird der Kanzlerkandidat der SPD, Außenminister Steinmeier, seine Strategie für das Wirtschaftswachstum Deutschlands im kommenden Jahrzehnt vorstellen: Vollbeschäftigung und ausgeglichene Haushalte sollen danach bis zum 2020 möglich sein trotz steigender öffentlicher Investitionen und Steuersenkungen für Geringverdiener. “Die Arbeit von morgen – Perspektiven für unser Land”, ist eine Grundsatzrede überschrieben, mit der Steinmeier am Montagnachmittag in Berlin als Gastredner der Karl-Schiller-Stiftung seinen “Deutschland-Plan” präsentieren will.

An dem knapp 70 Seiten umfassenden Konzept sei monatelang gearbeitet worden, heißt es von einem der Autoren aus Steinmeiers Stab. Nach vielen Gesprächen mit Unternehmern vorwiegend aus dem deutschen Mittelstand seien “praxisnahe Vorschläge” aufgenommen und “sehr detailliert” ausgearbeitet worden. Man werde aufzeigen, “wie und wo in welchen Wirtschaftsbereichen Wachstum geschaffen werden kann”. Auf dieser Grundlage könnten bis 2020 vier Millionen neue Arbeitsplätze entstehen, womit der Kampf gegen die Arbeitslosigkeit zu gewinnen sei.

三、Übersetzen Sie den folgenden Text ins Deutsche! (30 分)

叱吒美國國會參院近半世紀的愛德華·甘迺迪，是勞工及移民團體在國會最大的捍衛者。除了衛護美國民權，仗義執言的甘迺迪也關心世界人權，包括台灣。在台灣戒嚴時代，他積極針對台灣人權及返鄉黑名單等，提出法案並舉行聽證會，爭取台灣人返鄉。

1979 年美國與中華民國斷交時，甘迺迪共同領銜提出決議案，強調美國應繼續提供台灣防禦性武器，保障台海和平、穩定與安全。這項提案順利通過，後來變成台灣關係法的重要條款之一。

在台灣解嚴實施民主後，甘迺迪就不再批評台灣，而是經常在國會為台灣仗義執言。

Roger “Bud” Bulpitt is supervising the unloading of a large truck of ground, pressure-cooked chicken feathers and blood at his South Norwalk, Connecticut, dirt factory—or blending plant, as he prefers to call it. “What we make is soil,” says 52-year-old Bud. As his father, Stan “the Organic Man” Bulpitt, liked to say, “Nature takes a hundred years to make a one-inch layer of topsoil, while we do it every day.”

Last April Stan was laid to rest at the age of 76. He was a friendly, feisty man, something of a muckraker in his personal campaign against those who mistreat the land. Appropriately, he will spend the afterlife as he spent this one: consumed by earth. He leaves his sons Bud and David, 34—soil brothers, as it were—to carry on his work. Now they run the family terra firm.

Why would anyone need to manufacture dirt? Lots of the stuff seems to be already lying around. “Not so,” says David, who has a degree in plant and soil science from the University of Massachusetts. “Much of the Northeast and parts of the West are dirt poor. Like other things we always thought we’d have plenty of—clean water, ozone, redfish—fertile soil has become a victim of the twentieth century.”

- 17 What happened to Stan “the Organic Man” at the age of 76?
- (A) He retired.
  - (B) He died.
  - (C) He was laid off.
  - (D) He no longer manufactured dirt.
- 18 According to the passage, why does someone need to make soil?
- (A) It takes a hundred years to make one inch of topsoil.
  - (B) David has a degree in plant and soil science.
  - (C) There are places lacking fertile soil.
  - (D) It is a family business.
- 19 What does the word “something” refer to in the second paragraph?
- (A) A person of some consequence
  - (B) A thing with great influences
  - (C) A certain unexpected happening
  - (D) An object with significant values
- 20 According to the passage, what do most people think about soil?
- (A) Many areas are dirt poor.
  - (B) We actually make soil every day.
  - (C) It is the stuff lying around us.
  - (D) Dirt can be manufactured in a factory.
