Dear Mr. and Mrs. Stevens,

Thank you very much for inviting me to dinner last week. I certainly had an enjoyable time. You have a lovely home and I enjoyed seeing the new living room furniture you recently purchased.

The dinner itself was excellent. It goes without saying that Mrs. Stevens is an excellent cook. All of the food was delicious, but I especially enjoyed the roast beef and the mashed potatoes, not to mention the special homemade bread. I also enjoyed the tasty cheesecake for dessert. Above all, I enjoyed having the chance to spend time with you both. I particularly liked hearing more about your recent trip to Italy. You certainly had some interesting adventures there. My only regret is that the evening ended too quickly.

Once again, thank you for having me over for such a wonderful dinner. I look forward to having you both over to my home for dinner very soon.

Sincerely yours,

Nelson Gregory
