The Rohingya are often described as "the world's most persecuted minority." They are an ethnic group of mostly Muslims, 41 have lived for centuries in the majority Buddhist Myanmar. Currently, there are 42 1.1 million Rohingya who live in the Southeast Asian country. The Rohingya speak Rohingya or Ruaingga, a dialect that is distinct to others 43 in Rakhine State and throughout Myanmar. They are not considered one of the country's 135 officia ethnic groups and have been denied citizenship in Myanmar 44 1982, which has effectively made them stateless Nearly all of the Rohingya in Myanmar live in the western coastal state of Rakhine and are not allowed to leave without government permission. It is one of the poorest states in the country with ghetto-like camps and a 45 of basic services and opportunities. Due to ongoing violence and persecution, hundreds of thousands of Rohingya have fled to neighboring countries either by land or boat over the course of many decades.

四、閱讀測驗【請依照段落上下文意,選出最適當的答案】

The United States has withdrawn from UNESCO over what it claims is the organization's "continuing anti-Israel bias"—a move that has just been followed by Israel itself. The US State Department recently announced its intention to withdraw from the UN's cultural, scientific and educational organization and become a permanent observer instead. The US hopes to remain a non-member observer state, in order to contribute US opinions and expertise on issues like press freedoms and protecting world heritage. The US's decision will not effect existing UNESCO world heritage sites in the country, or prevent it from submitting sites for consideration in the future. But the US was losing a "world security partner" in UNESCO. The decision will take effect at the end of 2018.

The US helped found UNESCO in the wake of the Second World War, with the aim of ensuring peace through the free flow of ideas and education. The country's withdrawal marks yet another move by the Trump administration to distance itself from global organizations. The US has withdrawn from the organization once before, during the Reagan administration. Former President Ronald Regan pulled the country from UNESCO in 1984, claiming the body was biased in favor of the Soviet Union. President George W Bush rejoined the organization in 2002, but the US pulled its funding less than 10 years later after the organization accepted Palestine as a member.

- [1] 46. Which of the following would the passage most likely appear on?
- ① A news website.
- ② A conference program.
- ③ A bulletin board in a dorm.
- An academic journal on statistics.
- [3] 47. What is the reason that the US government decided to withdraw from UNESCO?
- ① Because Israel prevents the US from submitting sites to UNESCO.
- ② Because UNESCO prefers the Soviet Union to the US government.
- 3 Because the US government believed UNESCO showed bias against Israel.
- 4 Because the US government wanted to remain a non-member observer state.
- [2] 48. Which of the following is the author's view of the US withdrawal from UNESCO?
 - ① The US government links itself to UNESCO more skillfully.
- ② The Trump administration keeps itself from world organizations.
- ③ The US presidents are targeted by the Soviet Union and the Palestinians.
- 4 The US presidents will provide funding to support UNESCO in the future.
- [1] 49. Which of the following is closest in meaning to "found" in the second paragraph?
- ① Establish.
- ② Look for.
- ③ Oversee.
- Work out.

- [4] 50. Why is President Ronald Regan mentioned?
- ① To give a lesson on President Regan's body-building.
- ② To tell a story that the US and the Soviet Union were enemies.
- 3 To show an example of how President Regan became a hero in the 1980's.
- ① To explain the previous withdrawal of the US government from UNESCO.
